Paint water on the paper and add two colors of blue while it's wet.

Once the blue dries paint white tree branches on top.

When your painting dries draw ink on top of the branches.

Repeat, experiment, add a moon or stars, or snowflakes.

Look at the night sky and trees to get ideas.

Explore different placement and layering of trees.

Try combining all of your experiments.